ut of the ashes I

COME. And I carried wisdom with me. I was once a creative force that could not be, now my books exceed fifty. No more homeless but now in a home where I can work. I have for you here things I have learned over the years.

There was a time when I had nothing more to write with than a paper notebook and some color pens. It is good to know these days that I can turn such a thing into a book.

And this is great, better than when as a kid I only had a mechanical type writer. The internet is ready to receive my books.

And those books are free and in the public domain, one and all.

Thanks for reading and I hope to entertain you with a form of Luciferianism like no other.

This New Satanic age

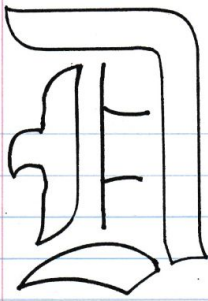

Humanity has opened their eyes wide open to hedonism. Their sacred cow comes fast food style and the signs of those places are like idols.

They scatter away from the truth. Lies for them are a natural reaction and a talent.

Selfishness is the rule of the day. all around people are taught to be selfish and only they matter.

Moral rule has greatly changed. It has all made for an out of control and childish species. Consider them Satan's newborn, His children. Children they are. spoiled. in need of discipline, in need of maturity.

Lucifer Jeremy White

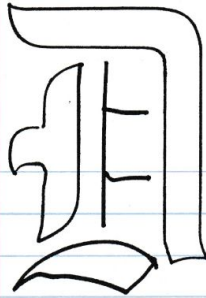

ream of an isosocie -ty.

In an isosociety people are at home all the time. There is no bother for them to reach out & connect to others. They have all they need at home. If they do wish to talk to another they can do so virtually and the 'virtual' is becoming less synthetic feeling all the time.

It is a naturally occurring state as more and more our entertainment mediums become better, food is delivered as with other things. All we have is in our homes. Why should anyone leave?

A home or a room is truly a kingdom. With all good things inside a person may be at home for weeks or even months at a time.

ream of a scientific utopia

That's the only kind of utopia that humans can possibly create.

It comes with scientific & technological advancements: elimination or reduction of human suffering through those.

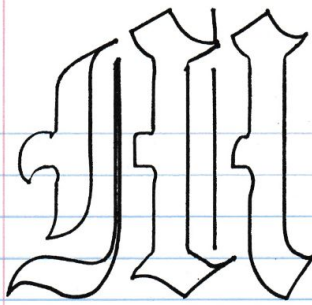

Through them all being fed. Through them no cancer. Labor being done w/ machinery, drones, androids. All are housed. Energy next to costless. Crime deterrents- AI cameras, energy field.

Then when our resources have grown enough, universal basic income could be put forth. A guaranteed income for all w/ the chance of making more.

Science may even discover a way to immortality some day.

Rights among the Luciferian.

The Right to be alone.

2.

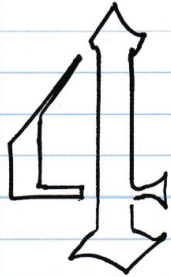

The right to be among your own kind no matter what that kind is.

3.

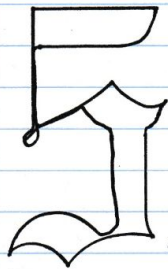

The Right to be yourself.

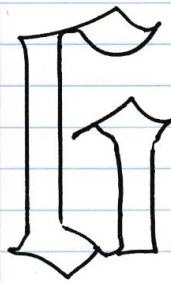

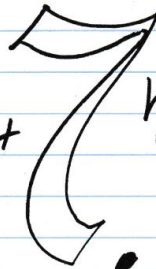

• The Right to evolve, progress, compete, and strive for what's Better.

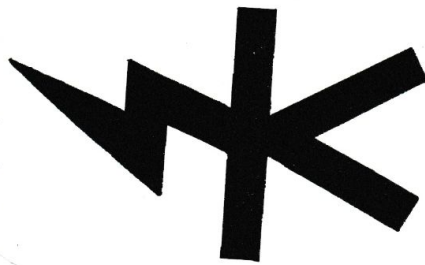

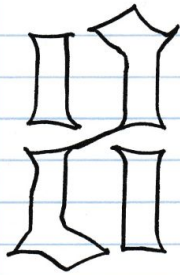

• The Right to not be emotional, caring, or loving towards another.

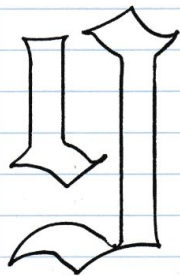

• The Right to at least a little Respect

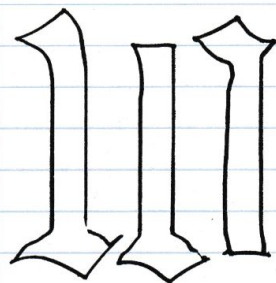

• If you aren't harming others you can do no harm.

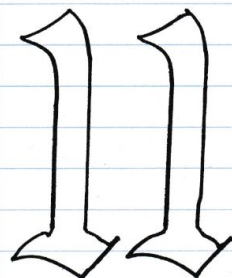

The Right to put your family and/or loved ones first.

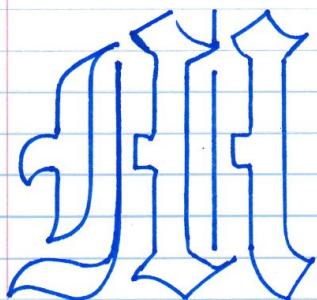

The Right to say "no," especially to anyone who would take what's yours.

The right to be strong over weak, strong over over-sensitivity.

May the right kind of people on this earth thrive: the civil, the peace-keeper, and responsible, while the bad do not have far to go. That is that the good have the most rights.

Childish Land

Satan's kingdom will have a childish aesthetic. It will be a sharp contrast to the plain and mundane world we have today. The kingdom of Heaven is paved in gold. Our streets will be paved with candy and board game pieces.

We will finally put certain things to use through the childish aesthetic program: fog machines, neon lights, fiber-optic lighting, lasers, indigo, black lights.

And tall swings, stickers everywhere, more toy vending machines, token currency, bubble machines, balloons—hot air balloon travel, and all other similar things.

ANGELIC Satanism

clt is just more honorable. clt opposites attract then the angelic among us are more attractive.

The Devil does fight for what is good. He just does so by punishing. He really brings out the good in people. He isn't going to side with you by being cruel and "evil."

clt is better to be philanthropic—blameless, a mature person, and all good things, then to go about doing and thinking evil. You will go further, going to better places. Yet to be a Satanist getting there, that's a powerful thing!

Lucifer J. White

Just let bad people be doomed.

That is a path they are on. If they do you wrong then that is either their life style or a habit they are forming. If it is especially bad then are likely to be sent to jail after a few more turns. What a battle they wage in their heads, where they are constantly angry.
The end of the road for them is severe punishment, so just leave them alone instead of becoming their first great victim.

Satan's
Children

And Satan is not a father
, he is a dad, with all manner of spoiling us.

How to remember everything:

All you need is a small pocket dictionary, remembering things from the random words you see.

What is time?

all that "time" is, is the nature of processing. Time is the speed of that processing. All that time is, is animation & its manifestation.

How to keep any music tonal:

just emphasize the notes of the triad, the tonic chord.

he joy of buying

As long as you have a little money a pizza is not far away. Money means better clothes. It means greater entertainment, better comfort, food, creativity, enjoyment. You can buy gifts for your loved ones. One of my favorite personal aspects to that is that the things you buy might exchange hands for an indefinite amount of time. First you buy an action figure and it'll be enjoyed awhile, but afterwards perhaps a hand me down, someday sold online, maybe entering into a store, and eventually becoming one's prized possession. That goes for just about anything you gift.

A good movie is good therapy

Being gracious & appreciative towards your things & life itself is, too.

Being "bright minded" helps. Find the logic that is best for your pride. Find the good in anything. Think positively, be optimistic, and most of all be full of pride.

A little cleaning or work of some kind may help.

Do a good deed. Mail out a present. Give to a deserving person, or some such thing.

Do something for yourself that you don't often do, break the rules a little.

Or go shopping. Put your heart into things.

Doing w/The Anti-Flow (is like a satanic river.)

There are many hidden gems out there, to say the least.

There is so much besides the popular.

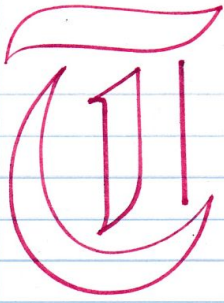

There are lifestyles apart from the ordinary. There are even new lifestyles to be found.

There is a stronger way to be, against the tide.

there is a life entirely your own. There are tastes to be found and discovered that are uniquely your own.

And in these things there is a soul to be gotten instead of the soulless who all run the same way.

hey have no right

People who won't Let you Be

They build up propaganda against your "vices" and find ways to punish you, ultimately wanting to take away your rights.

They want to force cures on you.

They want to regulate things to death.

They run with the idea that they should absolutely prevent any harm.

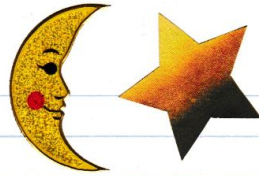

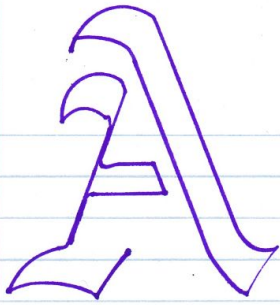

They treat adults like children while they take away our choices.

They let us do things but only according to their ways & methods.

They punish responsible people for the mistakes of fools.

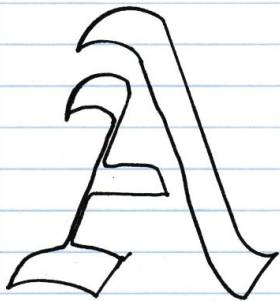

& there should come a time when such people should be stopped in their tracks.

spirit of competition

Will go a long way. Being the best is not easy. The more difficult a thing is the less the competition. Everyone wants the easy way. In some cases being in the top ten is a very good & honorable thing. The reason why I prefer capitalism over communism is because one is about competition & personal success, the other is not.

world of higher Standards

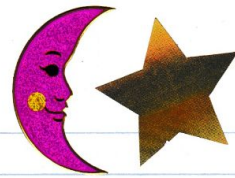

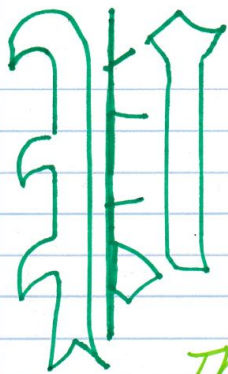

Where only the best will do. A strong people, de-weakened. People who work harder at what they do. Where things are not overbearing, but take us further. Our minds on evolution and progress forever.

I personally like visualization a lot. I am not talking about the "think of a beach" kind either. But the more powerfully feeling kind. What's your cup of tea? Whatever it is, have faith in it. You must, if it is to be at its best or noticed at all. As for me magic has never failed me. I have always gotten what I wanted. Sometimes it took multiple tries, but my wishes always came true. "When you wish upon a star." I was once a part of a Wiccan group. They are such nice people and cute in their approach—truly the pets of the gods (higher powers, deities, angels, aliens.) I learned their magic works because they think it is cute when they carry a crystal in their pocket.

Lucifer [★] Jeremy White ✱

Prayer sheets

This is highly versatile magic. Very effective magic too. Fun, creative as well.

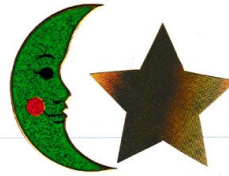

The basis behind it is simple but the ways it is done is many. It means specializing a paper, putting prayers on it, giving a tithe to it, and preserving it.

Specialize your paper by putting ribbons on the border, including drawings or printed images that suit it, laminate it if you wish, use designer paper if you want, color sheets, color pens, even origami it. put it in an envelope. put it in a jar, laminate it. A tithe can be from a lot of world coins, or those just of your nation. Can also be crystal stones (I use rose quartz), but it can even be more of a gift (green marbles, rings, troll dolls, whatever you want to give.

The

SATANIC FORCE

Don't be mistaken, Satan will not be fooled into using anyone who may fall short of his purpose. Those in the right time & in the right place - and being the right person for the job, may find their lives drastically change under those settings.

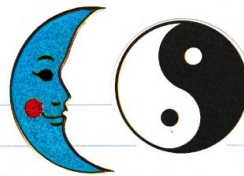

Satan is a lion, something that few humans can be, except through him. When the Devil is on the prowl nothing can stop him, certainly no human.

Entire rulers have been brought up this way. Great musicians too, great artists, inventions, and other things clf you feel you have been given a purpose from Satan then make sure you do your best.

My favorite things

I like big TV's & laptops just like everyone else but here are some less obvious stuff:

Green marbles, rose quartz, pogs, stickers, stencils, color pens, plasma TV's, anything that glows in the dark, old gaming stuff (late 90's from the start of it), oolong tea, cherry cider, micro machines, devilish action figures, Troll Dolls, valuable jewelry, various tarot decks, fiberoptic lighting, Electro-luminescence, pocket radios, brief cases, kids musical keyboards (about 37 keys), solar panels large & small, electronic components, mood rings, Saint John's wort, mushroom complex pills, moringa, Ginkgo, cassette tape recorders (with a radio), mysterious old floppy disks, outdoor sandals that do not use velcro (which wears down over time) and all things of retro gaming, not only video games & consoles themselves.

Lucifer White

Just some neat ideas

"The Church of Lucifer message in or on something," while their name stands out what they do is put the little pamphlet, note, booklet, church & religious material everywhere. slip them into books, magazines, mail them, and do just about anything other than directly hand them to people.

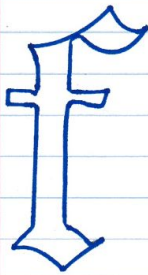

A game called "magic the encyclopedia" it is played with an encyclopedia, A-Z, A has things like "Armor," S has "shops," "spells," C has "characters," M has "maps," "magic," and so on.

That game has you documenting your journey in a put-into-a book sort of way. It has you doing real world stuff like going to buy candy for someone if they beat you.

A Succy White bad Wheel

clt you are going to get far than you are going to need a good wheel. A good wheel is knowing well enough you are going somewhere. clt is against a hopeless dream. A bad wheel is getting caught up in bad lifestyles & taking bad people along with the ride. A good wheel must only let in good & helpful people. otherwise you are paying for their gas, you are only serving them. They are crafty too, good at making fools of people.

ight for yourself. Focus on making a better & better life for yourself and do not pick up hitchhikers.

You'll get to where you want to go without obstruction.

The rincipality

Attribute these to your loved ones, up to eleven including you. You are in it in an oldest to youngest way. The oldest is the first. The youngest is the last, and you fit in accordingly.

person one - Red, hand, bird, staff person two - Bear, Brown, Bee, cane person three - Rabbit, green, seed, stage person four - White, Ring, Goat, Th f (this is mine)

person five - Red, whip, cat, fairy person six - Yellow, mouse, Lord, wind person seven - Bomb/Blast/Wand, black, fox, beast person eight - yellow, toad, horse, dust person nine - assassin, creature, word, Lion/Tiger person ten - Elephant, blue, stone, spirit person eleven - Purple, dragon, mask, dog/wolf.

find them in whatever form of entertainment. Discover the occult given principality of you & your loved ones that way.

VERY ONE is becoming individualists.

Everyone is becoming individualists. Why? For one thing, options have opened up. There was a time when our music videos basically only came from TV, and music on 10 song CD's or cassette. Now people are listening to exactly what they want to and there is a large amount of it. The same goes for movies & games too, many of which are being remastered or redone/remade. Our clothing options are no more limited to the mall or some such things. Online people can get exactly what they want. Some even make their own shirts.

That is the principle behind it: options have opened up allowing people to truly be themselves.

Lucifer Jeremy White

He thou perfect

Just by saying in your mind that you seal up the sum of it, you will be guided into it.

So let it be known that what you do is perfect, and it will become a self fulfilling prophesy.

He bright. Increase that light.

Be all good things in your thinking: proud, optimistic, and bright-sided in general. Come to such haughty thinking as you feel drunk by it. That's The Devil's alcohol!

Lucifer Jeremy White

ANSWERS of The Age :

We need tougher laws. At least we do where we live. Things like theft have run rampant.

Science and tech to be guided into reducing human suffering. Things that feed, that house, that heal, that deter crime.

Less negative influences. more maturity. more responsibility. For these Satanic new borns to "grow up," which will require time.

Love it or hate it we need God's wisdom and for Him to be with us, as without Him and His wisdom we can never remain intact.

Lucifer Jeremy White

My prayers to God

For the protection of me & my loved ones.
The advancement of science & tech leading into a utopia. The forgiveness of my sins. To never be confined again.
To always have my home & things.

My prayers to Satan

For the protection of me & my loved ones.
For success as an author. To obtain great fame, a life of significance.
Good continuing money. Victory over enemies, their downfall.

Lucifer Jeremy White

ust doesn't pay being nice.

"Give a person an inch & they'll take a mile." The only time I give to a homeless person is when they ask for "just a quarter." It is worth the amusement. I give them that quarter. They always have this look on their face, 'That's all?' as I walk away.

I used to have the serious problem of being hounded for things. That is, until I learned to say "no." In fact now it is my pleasure to say no.

There is a useful principle here: if you are offensive people will be defensive. If you are defensive people will be offensive. If you are neutral it can go either way.

Lucifer Jeremys White

e old curse

Earth is like a prison. It is like Alcatraz on a universal scale. We have unlimited resources on this little ball - things we have to work with. It is like a death sentence here for all we know, in our decrepit bodies. Cheap bodies. Bodies that malfunction. I believe that the earlier you were sent here the tougher your sentence was and the lighter the sentence, the later you arrived.

etro gaming. That's my favorite community. I also write video game idea books & books on the philosophy of good game making. Those are under Adam Jeremy Capps. Then there is my book on creating a Satanic video game, a book called "My Antichrist game or movie."

Vil wins when leaders are not Strong. Authority figures must thirst for justice. They and our leaders must be heavy handed towards violent criminals.

They must not take it lightly.
Where the laws are too lax the innocent are harmed, even heartlessly killed and we must not allow that to happen.

Harassing the mentally ill should be illegal. Filming them as though it is entertainment should be too. Some of these people were made crazy by evil people - forced into drugs, and forced into horrible things.

Controversial tech that I agree with includes so-called "privacy invasion" cameras—those, which through AI, can identify any person. When it sees a criminal person it knows so, thereby effectively making finding them a great deal easier.

Secondly, I agree with things like robotics "taking away jobs," if it eventually serves Universal Basic Income.

I also agree w/ something which was established in San Francisco regarding the mentally ill. Which is that those who are apparently mentally ill & homeless can be placed in a mental hospital on that merit alone. I should know, I was homeless a year and needed just that.

Lucifer Jeremy White

How Aliens operate

While on the earth they can switch around bodies. If they ever want or need to leave a body they can cause it to have a heart attack or some such thing. For all we know it is a dead human person, but its spirit just went into a new body.

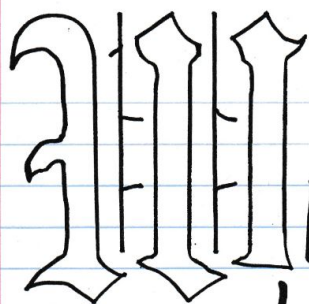

They don't sleep. They pretend to. During that time they might astral project to be elsewhere.

They spend their vacations in the bodies of upper class people. They enter into a body of a rich person to do so, one of their own kind.

They cause human kind to progress just by whispering into the ears of scientists and other such things.

-Lucifer Jeremy White

What are they talking about?

my strangest reviews always come from Laveyan Satanists. By comparison Christians sound totally normal. These people though come on and go through the rounds elaborating with a little bit too much pride. Their brain washed minds are very apparent when they do. They trully think they are special and that the whole world must know a few things: we don't worship Satan (we worship Anton LaVey), we are our own gods (thanks to Anton LaVey) and a few other things they are most eager to say with none of it all having to do with my books, but so their review goes. Anton LaVey was just a dirty old man serving his fetishes. He had no real thing to offer philosophically. His approach to ritual was absurd and also just a sexual mechanism. Just like any other cult leader he isolated his followers while deifying himself. He was nothing but a creep.

My other planets

my other imaginary planets? Who can say really. If the universe goes on forever than maybe every imaginable world exists.. somewhere out there. And if I have the faith they do and believe they can hear & know me then it happens to exist as a world that does, if that makes sense. Here is the definition of five worlds:

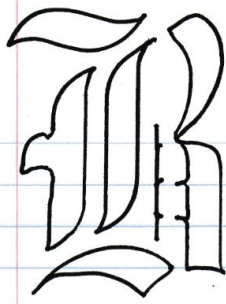

Link - An old style world which has outlawed science. There is magic on that world. It resembles our medieval period.

Pippy - It is near the planet Link. A very dark & gothic kind of world. Has a great deal of magic there.

Ler - The most evil world in the universe.

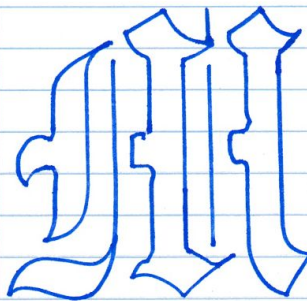

Sephra / sefra - A "candy land," a childish race. Think bubble gum pop (Aqua) or Lazy Town.

Orion - A planetary system of many different worlds. A naturally intelligent race, highly advanced technologically.

Being politically Correct

Oh imagine the time before the book was written on how we should & should not speak. These people do not have my heart. They have my words, and words are cheap, but they do not have my heart. c! just blend in. c! just say what they need to hear in a language they thirst for.

Modern society is a cult. Has a cult language w/ cult produced terms. Will ostracize any who are against it. Are thought policed. Demands strict adherence. c!s brain washing through and through having you worship its ideologies.

The Gray Side

The gray side is about balance. The gray side is about moderation. The two fix about any problem. The two take any bad thing and make them acceptable. Drinking, but not too much, to gamble, but not too much. To be angry, but not too much, and so on.

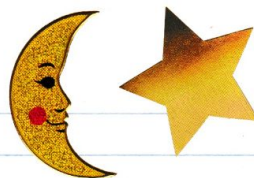

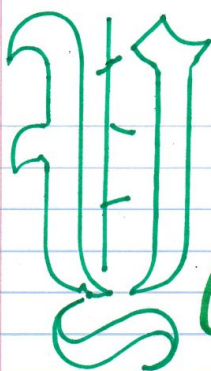

clt gives you an advantage. One where you can use both sides w/o outright dismissing "the other side."

clt is not sided-minded. Non gray people really hate that, as though a person invalidates their "side" simply by existing.

clt can as well mean going back and forth between one and the other, as it makes you whole.. wholly gray.

Lucifer Jeremy White

our occult name

How do you come up with your new name? Interestingly, coming up w/a new one has become common place, is done the way it is done online.

You create a new name like you would a new word. That combine sounds to give the name a few different meanings.

One of mine is Damuel. "El" can either mean "God" or "All." The name Samuel (w/an "S") means either "God has heard," or "name of God."

Just combine the elements you want to be attributed to. Ray = light, or the word "bright" with the sound "Bryt," or some such thing. When cl call myself Lucifer what cl really mean is Lucifer Junior. cl love the name. cl is attributed to many different people, even Jesus, going by the last chapter in Revelations. As for "white," well, "black" was just too easy. That's the favorite color of Satanists.

And cl just decided to keep my middle name.

Understanding our curse

We are doomed to love one another (largely sexually at its root) over God - and to continue our race in a pseudo form of immortality.

We are doomed to death not given any proven evidence that God exists, nor an afterlife. Death weighs over our head all of our days.

And we are here w/ the never-ending fight against pain, suffering, working, never truly resting.

We even must sleep every night in a pseudo form of death.

Be sure that God knows you through & through and knew what you would bring to Earth. And so the timing.

At least we have life and human life at that, godly as it gets on Earth. I thank God for that. They say that with all the odds we can come up with that being born is the most astronomical. Parents got together, a father with millions of seeds, their parents, & things like those ancestors struggling to be w/ the one they love.

But existence is not so unfathomable to me. I exist because of God, not from my parents, but because of how He used my parents to create me.

He truly is our father then, not our human parents are, but He is. I wonder sometimes - if I kill a cockroach am I just putting it out of its misery? It scares me to think in such a mind, served me w/ a panic attack once. I would not want to live the life of a roach feeding on its succulent doo-doo.

Being a great creator

The mediocre one a dime a dozen. They'll get every small dollar they can. People with fatter pockets too, given that wealth & cheapness goes hand in hand.

You are either the inventor or one that copies.

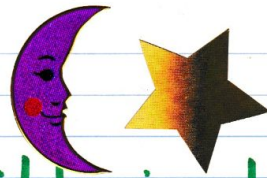

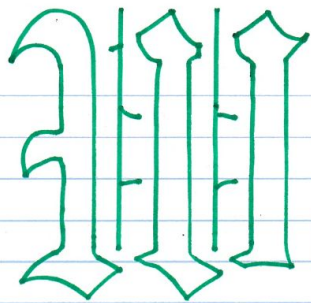

Your brand or product either carries a good name or one known as crap, like the difference between Capcom and LJN.

Your brand or product is either esteemed as difficulty in crafting or just easily made junk.

A company & the one behind it either has reasons to be proud or does not.

Lucifer Jeremy White

hat faith in the good means clt means tipping the delivery driver or resturant person even if you feel you cannot afford it.

clt means regularly giving gifts

clt means not accusing others unless your evidence is true and full.

clt means patience & holding your tongue, hope in that you will be heard.

clt means to forgive knowing that to the extent you forgive you are yourself forgiven.

clt means to leave punishment to God, to hope some one will become better, and to let love win over hate.

Solutions to Anger

Lucas Jeremy White's

Let all start in the mind. We often use our minds to brew up anger. They are things that get stuck in our minds, trapping us into anger. Things might not even be so bad to begin with. We "make a mountain out of a mole hill" or perhaps our standards are too high. But it all starts in our mind and can even be a kind of thing we are good at growing, by our nature. So in effect we are good at taking a small thing and making it grow high. I don't use hateful words and terms in my mind. I instead try to be more understanding. There is no use in attacking a person in our mind. The knife goes straight through them, you could say. Cuss words & anger go hand in hand. When it comes to the tongue it is like pulling out the big guns. So as for me I simply never cuss. Besides, even if you do get angry at least those bad words will not make you look like you were in the wrong, placing you there.

Being generic

Being subtle, being non-specific, non-exact. It serves a person well.

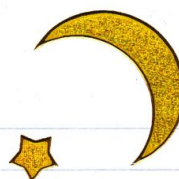

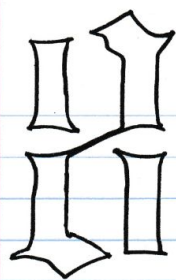

You leave them guessing. You leave them wanting more. You fill their glass only half way instead of handing them a gallon. Besides, if knowledge is power then they have little on you. So let people figure out things on their own. Especially if the rest is not difficult to put together.

Power of public domain

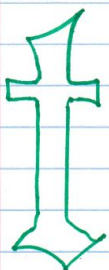

Just imagine what would have happened if George Lucas suddenly put his Star Wars in the public domain instead of selling the rights to Disney. He sold his soul. Star Wars would have utterly been everywhere in just about every form. He could have greatly enjoyed the new incarnations.

is great 8 ∞

They say to "drink your 8 glasses of water a day," and to "get 8 hours of sleep each night." They say Pluto isn't really a planet, and that leaves 8. We say that Pluto is not really a character - doesn't speak. 8, octaves are 8 notes repeated on the keyboard. There's the 8 ball in pool. There's also a magic 8 ball. Ever play crazy 8's? And those are 8 things that make the number 8 awesome.

Top games we want in my collection

Final Fantasy 3 (

Ninja Gaiden 2 (NES)

Mega Man 4 (NES) Grimlins 2 (NES)

The Legend of Zelda: Link's Awakening (GB), Ninja Gaiden Shadow (GB), The Final Fantasy games on the original game boy, and Dragon's Revenge for the Genesis.

That bubble gum pop

Like the band Aqua, it was a short lived thing mostly from Scandinavia. "Toy Box" is an American example. Anyways, I wish there was more of it.

Neon colors almost made a come back. Those were big in the late 1980's & early 1990's. In fact that slot of time : about 1988-1992, could have been a generation of its own.

Fanny packs are things that people will wear whether or not they are in style, though many more would if they were. I tell them, "Well it used to be popular!"

Pogs are a thing I miss. Video game manuals too. And turn-based Final Fantasy games which have become action RPGs. Sometimes people want a cartoon over a movie and a realistic CGI thing is not a cartoon!

Satan has been Given his time

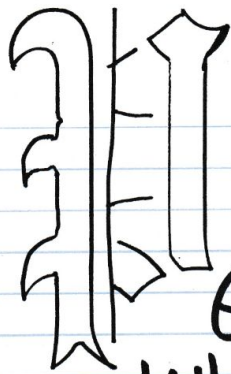

A thing true since the 1980's We have seen just how fast Satanic forces act. cld no time at all the Satanic is everywhere. keep in mind it does not have to be openly Satanic to be Satanic. Rock n' Roll music is Satanic. There are stronger degrees of it however.

The Satanic newborn have arrived on planet earth. There are things that need to be worked out. Satan is perfect at doing so, be sure. For awhile things will be bad because of these spoiled & wicked children. But in time things will cool.

So now begins the great experiment. What will earth be like under the hands of Satan?

I am most eager to see.

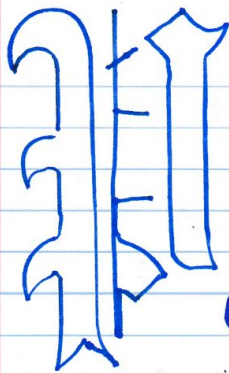

people who play dirty

A vandal is a coward. They cannot be seen for what they do to you and could even be someone in your life. It's a good thing we have so many cameras these days.

I went to wash my clothes today when I saw that all over the washing machine we share here. I just cannot imagine how & why. We have all seen public bathrooms obliterated by someone.

The worst kinds of people are those who would keep you awake like having an inexplicable knock on your wall in the middle of the night. I finally fixed the loudness at least, w/a white noise machine. It has a "fan sound" that as a sound I don't have to pay attention to. The moment I turn it off I hear loud voices.

people who don't bathe

Have you ever heard it be said "your body odor attracts others sexually"? That pheromone thing being talked about. George Carlin once said that women like the smell of crap. We all know what the atheist Satanist has to say about it: don't bathe because it attracts others. We all know what happens when a person of body odor comes into the room, though, and if it is thick enough we have the urge to vomit. There are people though that would lead us to believe it's sexy or something. It's not. It's unbearable.

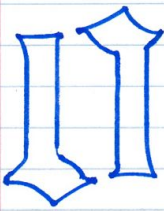

cl would say that the max anyone should wait before showering is 5 days. Less if it is a hot & sweaty day for you. Brush the teeth or they will rot. Use deodorant. Because as we all know, we cannot smell our own.

oft y headed Answers

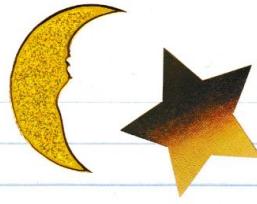

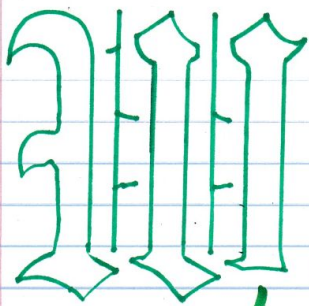

They have no practical use. people with this "wisdom" are only tricksters who would astonish you with their thoughts. At the base of them though, they lead nowhere. you could call it "fool's gold."

Only you can fix every- thing.

No matter how many helpful things you read or hear the only way of being your mental best comes from inside. We all have our own unique problems & answers. Sometimes we have to source our own answers entirely. As for me I never provide "complete answers" knowing just that. I always leave at least a little effort to my readers. It's better that they fix themselves than I do, or anyone else.

ishes do come true.

Imagine us as kids who wanted nothing more than a new video game but only received a few every year. Now with ROMs & Emulators a person can have the entire library of games for free. Or if they prefer a classic remake, the system w/ 20~100 games pre-installed. Something that could have cost thousands of dollars at one time. Music went the same way.

One year you hunger for a song you haven't heard in years, the next they are all available on demand. New tech enables us to pursue our dreams. In my generation we were all kids wanting to create video games. Hell, we can make action figures if we wanted to, using 3D printers. Two of the most helpful things for me were notation software (could finally hear and digitize my music) & just word processors along w/ online publishing..

Finding answers

is among the best of talents we can have.

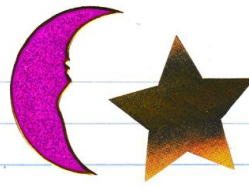

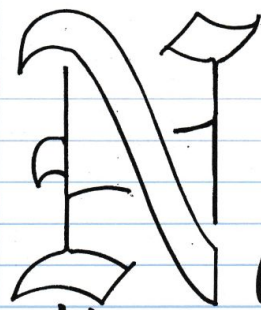

The world is one big mathematical problem for us to solve. Sometimes answers come easy, sometimes not, and often there are best answers to be found while the rest isn't substantial.

A light example of mine is the fact that cleaning people sometimes come to clean my room, removing me from it for 8 hours, so I now save money for a different hotel room for a day.

What you want is to turn a bad thing into a good thing if you can. Sometimes your worries can be totally undone with a little logic. That or evidence you are wrong & need not worry.

In any case the more you are able to find answers the better.

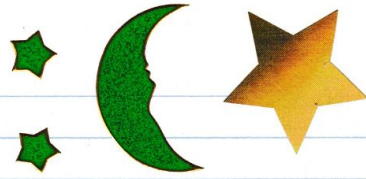

No one knows when they are going to go

So you might as well enjoy life. From what I've seen, the good do not die young. If you have lived to middle age then that's a blessing. I had an uncle that quit smoking and a few years later he was blowing up an air mattress with his mouth and suffered a stroke.

You never know when you'll be at the wrong place at the wrong time. One goes to the store without knowing s/he'll never come back.

I was a hypochondriac as a kid and young adult. Always afraid of things like a cut leading to a deadly infection. I'm no longer a hypochondriac but I have had panic attacks more recently, for the first time in my life. The thought that 'one way or another I am going to die someday' puts great fear into me.

I am proud of our soldiers

It is not really American to be in love w/ our politicians. George Washington did not want to be on money "that's for kings, not presidents."

Soldiers however, are the ones truly fighting for us. They would lay down their lives for us. All to protect our borders, those strong borders, those borders that protect our rights and keep out anyone, would they take them from us.

We ourselves (as civilians) must fight for our rights. If we do not then we'll lose them. The foundation of our freedom is largely undeniable. They are things we should not be deprived of and if they are the natural reaction is to fight to get them back, in full, so long as we have courage, courage like that as our founding fathers had.

is a good thing.

I really like the Ferengi in Star Trek. They live for gain (success) and nothing else matters. Capitalists serve the people. They give the people the product they want at the price they want (one willing to pay the most optimally.)

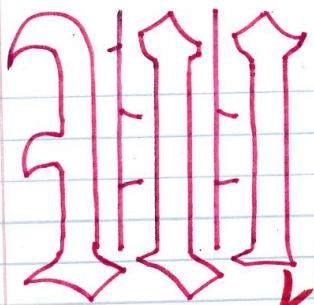

The reason why I don't like socialism is because it is w/o competition. "All for society." But what is "society" but an impersonal thing?

May our dignity be kept.

I have great honor towards those who would fight for our dignity, where it is disparaged.

Lucifer Jeremy White

When it's none of their business

Following your religion (including this, which is a religion) should be allowed without deterrence or obstruction. Cdn cult like societies they may try to interfere. Do not let them.

Your opinions & beliefs are your own. No one has the right to force you into those of their own.

If someone doesn't like what you do then that's their problem, not yours.

Live, breathe, and think free.
If someone does not like it—then too bad.

You have the right to not be bothered and harassed for being yourself.

Lucretia Jeremy White

stepping out of line has never been so easy.

Them standards just keeping going further & further up.

It is all a part of my "principle of convolution." Over time, every little thing becomes convoluted, a thing that only chaos can remedy, and so the great destruction of old things.

Who is the rebel by that time? Whoever the rebel is, that is what the ordinary will become. Whoever holds the forbidden fruit is envied - even if cautiously so.
People become pigs over the stuff, eventually.

So regard it all as just a dying thing.
A thing that will not last forever, because it won't. What we demonize today we worship the next.

Lucifer Jimmy White

Equality

The problem with equality is that people do not want to be equal, they want to be greater. People normally want leaders too & celebrities to worship. They want power behind the kind of group they are in. After all, groups are entered into to have a little bit of power over others & people identify them as the power behind themselves.

The truly honorable are those that got themselves into the upper class with their own bare hands. Those that hold jobs they take seriously. Those that take university seriously. Those that have added to the world in a positive way.

Some thoughts may your kingdom be in your home.

may you have a comfortable chair.. your throne.

may you be blessed to bring things into that home.

may gold rings be around your fingers. may you be adorned with precious gems.

may you live protected, by angels & demons alike. And the same for your loved ones.

may you live in a world & society that only becomes better. may the new things that come about are exactly to your liking.

And may you enjoy life in full always eager & thankful for the new day.

The way that I am Satanic

You won't find me doing horribly illegal things like human sacrifice.

You'll just find me as Satan's author.
I feel very rewarded for just that.
I live in the best of homes, w/ comfort, the things I need (like iced tea & tobacco) and with that I am prolific.

I am a worldly person. meaning
I love life and the things in it (other than people.) Then again my family means a great deal to me.

I am what can be called a Christian Satanist and that itself has many meanings: Reverse sometimes, sometimes one, sometimes the other, and as a result: both.

Sucata

we have been using a lot of "at leasting" lately. "At least (this, that)" let's very helpful.

Magically, to some extent, what you reason becomes true, so have "optimathic" reasoning.

Generate as many proud thoughts you can. Become drunk on pride.

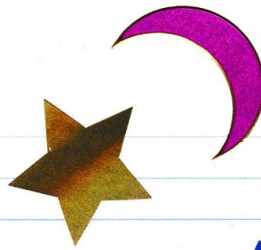

Wash away bad thoughts having good thoughts conquer them.

Replace any dislike of yourself w/ pride.

Lessen your enemies, problems, and worries through your thinking.

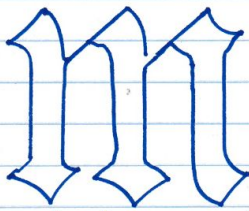

By doing so you'll feel like a million bucks.

When the time comes that energy is practically free & limitless than we will find it being used everywhere w/no worries of cost and waste.
We hope it goes that way, anyway.
That brilliant lights be everywhere, automation through robotic machinery everywhere, the largest TV's you can imagine, and warm power-providing

Freedom = 's progress & The Satanic

A dictatorship would stifle any kind of creativity & personal progress. Would strip away any reward keeping it for themselves.

We see in free societies that Satanism moves quick & strong, permeating all. If it was not for freedom then people would not have made the Satanic things of today - the celebrity be unemployed - unthinkable, w/o freedom.

You know what gets me? Newton, the great scientist, is argued to be Christian by Christians (they wish to prove Christians are smart w/ his example.) He was the first to put out there that the earth goes around the sun & nearly lost his life for heresy because of it - because saying that contradicts the Bible! They (the Christian Kingdom) threatened to execute him if he did not refute it.

Sometimes there Can be no peace w/o War

Sometimes the war is against civilians, a society that has uged into disruption & anarchy.

The peace keepers want the best, they hope for the best, a peaceful solution. When they find that does not work, they begin to fight against the pervasive lawlessness.

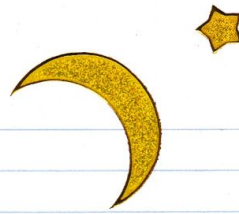

clf you think the regular police are bad, wait until you see the secret police or military police! At that point a gentle arrest is the last thing you'll recieve.

So hearken to what cl say & do not let it go that far. People must be doubled down on. Laws need to be tougher before the little fire grows too high.

A ^{Super White} weak society

clf weakness is playing victim clf weakness is expecting to be supported.
clf weakness is forced equality.
clf weakness is sensitivity.

Then we sure as hell live in a weak society.

Were did all of our strength go?
When was the greatest virtue of it lost, abandoned?

Why doesn't congress bring THAT up when making a budget?
ce'll tell you why: people have become accustomed to being taken care of.

People have all to many rights to be taken care of, to make poor choices, to be treated like a nurse treating patients.

Nothing is their problem. clt's someone else's problem.

Rowing your tastes

The more you love the fuller and more happier you will be. Give it a lot of thought and always go over thoughts of gratitude from time to time.

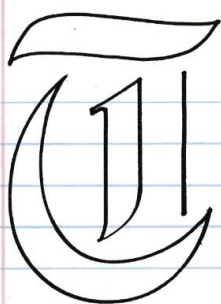

Some of the things I really like:

Weeping willow trees, cactus fruit, hard candy, guitar hero with loved ones, electronics of antiquity. I really like viewing dawn, the first light. At night during winter, Orion. To have only a good king size blanket for my clothing. To be sure that I have a home that cannot be taken from me.

Strength is the answer. Self pity is the problem.

Lifting yourself up is the answer.
Carrying weight is the problem.

Forgetting is the answer. Dwelling

Self restraint is the answer. over-

Being patient is the answer. Awaiting Choosing to enjoy life is the answer.

It is up to you,

Treat yourself today. Enjoy your food and drinks more than usual. See a great movie you haven't seen in years. Create something nice. Be brave enough to start a new hobby. Call someone you have not talked to in years. You are only a few acts away from a better-than-normal day.

My recent journey entailed schizophrenia in its worst incarnation with the most profane wisdom coupled with it. See, I was put into the isolation room of a jail for a month when I devised a few things: fast magic, greater visualization, The Principality list, "a psychic connection to the world" eventually, and the shape of Satan:

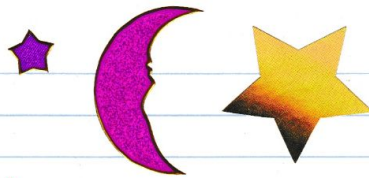

I imagine that to resemble the SW letter on the Sigil of Baphomet.

I would move to San Francisco not long after that and had many visions, conversation with demons, revelations, and other similar things.

It all led me to write what I have and I would never think about selling it. The Devil pays me.

Lucifer's Anti-Cult Rules

Don't be mistaken. Cults are basically illegal even under the umbrella of religion. You cannot physically, mentally, sexually, or financially abuse a person.

These sorts of rules prevent a cult:

Do not isolate people, do not allow another to isolate you.

Do not deify a religious leader of any kind.

Do not sexualize religion.

Never abuse.

Never trap or confine another.

Do not take money from the disabled or elderly who may not know any better. Do not sell things like salvation.

& most of all: Just don't be someone easily fooled to begin with.

Texturals as magic cards

Before there were memes, at least things they came to be called memes, there was a thing called Texturals.

Textural means text, image, and scripture — or as scripture. Not the Bible kind, but scripture nonetheless.

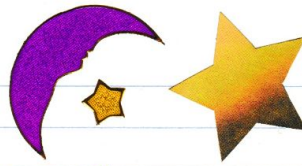

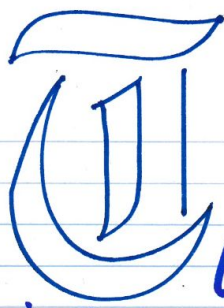

Take the classic NES Zelda screen where you first enter a cave & the sage inside says "It is dangerous to go alone, take this."

They can be taken from any video game, movie, or show. The idea is that they are a snapshot w/ a quote.

These can be made into magic cards.. for answers, advice, or meditation.

Lucas Jeremy White

Small index cards + printer + laminator.

urning RPG magic into real life magic Fire means passion, "burning away," intensifying, strongly spreading about.

Ice means to cool down, to stop, freeze, to be cold.

Water means to wash away, to purify.

Quake means to shake a foundation, to rock.

Lightning means to strike (an interest, a powerful statement.)

Remedy is an easy one. Let only means to solve a problem.

& Flood means to inundate, to put forth in large numbers.

Lucas Jeremy White

No human is ever as good as they seem

They say that Gandhi was sexually perverted. All men are perverted, well, through puberty anyway. Someone that you think loves you may in fact secretly hate you. Often enough people get the feeling of killing you. Everyone has skeletons in the closet. Psychologists would agree & say that these things are in fact common. We know. We've asked them. Why else would we watch Horror flicks, crime shows detailing murder, or why else would the news be saturated w/ violence? It's all fine, just don't act out on it.

And never be fooled into thinking that a person is an angel.

cl grew up in a good family where gift giving & all the hollidays were celebrated. We often took vacations to, to wonderful places.

So cl am tied to my family.

And cl send them gifts like on their birthdays, on mother's Day, Father's Day, and Christmas. cl spend a lot too. cl even have them shipped right to their home instead of to their small town p.o. Box.

But to anyone else? cl wouldn't give anyone else a nickle.

Luciles Jeremy White

Art of The Hustler

They won't settle on the cheaper things. They'll only pay for the best, run out of money, then go to someone to make up for it.

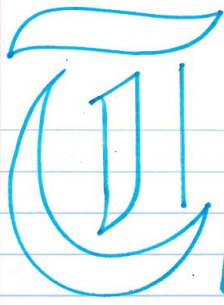

They'll promise to pay back double.. triple.. quadruple.. until you give in. But when the time comes to pay you back they think 'I owe that much? That just isn't fair!'

They never have their own stuff. They constantly share. Money among them changes hands like a back and forth.

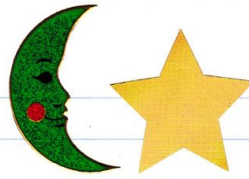

Give to them once & they will never go away.

Once they use you up you are worthless to them!

he phases of my life

cln the first real phase of my life cl was obsessed with The Book of Revelations. cl Had seen a movie "The 7th Sign" which propelled my interest in it.

Then in Elementary school my friends were talking about magic, clt brought about my interest & study in the occult & our library was full of occult books.

But up until age 13 black magic was hands off for me. Then at 13 cl rapidly got into the satanic, mostly through music like Slayer, Danzig, and Morbid Angel.

But video games would take over that. The games cl played the most was Zelda & Final Fantasy.

At about 16 cl was very invested in my identity. cl learned to write music too & spent years doing so.

Then in my early 30's cl decided to be an author. which cl am to this day.

Alternative ways of doing things

"there's more than one way to skin a cat."

I believe that Locrian mode and impressionism are two under used composition techniques in music.

you could paint w/ nail polish. There are a lot of "paints" out there.

make your music be about whatever you want it to be about, even if it has nothing to do with the lyrics.

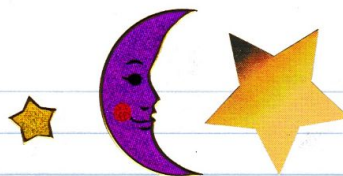

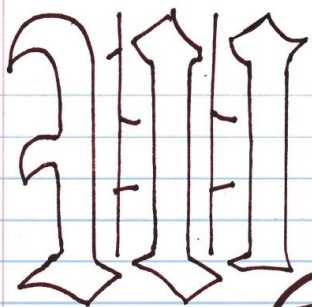

Use a starbucks coffee cup as your magical chalice.

Pray to your idols for free in a Buddhist spiritual shop.

Do what my friend in jail taught me: use the rubber of your flip flops as an eraser.

(Fortunately we can all afford an eraser.)

here's all the Gray Sided stuff?

cls it such a stretch to add Gray magic to the others?

Gray is a good way to go. clt means balance- not too little, nor too much.
clt means moderation. cl wouldn't say "perfect balance," as to have just the right amounts matters more.

clt is non-sided. That can be very irritating w/ how one side is wrapped up w/ being against the other. They are in it for the enemy, you could say. you could also say The Devil wrote the Bible.

clt is advantageous.. no real rules.
Just do what works best. Like my "crystal rule," "do things the best way they are done."

They cannot be hypocritical either, yet they are entirely hypocritical (a sort of a paradox.)

I y I prefer being alone

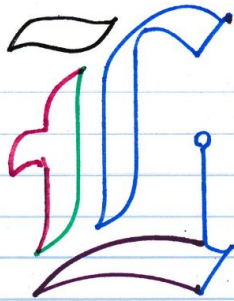

You won't find me in a relationship.
I won't find myself into its burden.
You won't see me happy at a party.
You'll find me in a corner not wanting to be there.

I do not want or need someone to share my space & money with.
I certainly don't need to raise a Rather I want my time and my doings to be completely my own. No one around from me or her. No trouble at all, and relationships have many.

My books speak for me, they grow just as I would have them grow.
They do so flawlessly. As such they are the only children I need.

Let the people be divided

Let's a mistake to think everyone should be and think the same. Let is bad to try & force your ideology on people, and people do it all the time.

When two sides fight & hate each other all the while coersing them to be within their own - that's a war.

Everyone should have the right and ability to be among their own. But people won't have it, forcing their standards on others.

They largely shout at brick walls when they shout at each other.

Not knowing it is an actual wall they need.

Besides, same minded people are simple minded people.

thank my readers

Looks like this book is nearly done. It has been a lot of fun.

I am an author who wants to make a positive change. For that sake, my books are free (provided all over the place as free ebooks)

Just see: Google play, Archive.org, Free-ebooks.net, Smashwords, Scribd, & Lulu.com among other places.

Even in print form my books are free, at least in terms of what I am paid (my revenue is set at 0 to make them as inexpensive as possible).

These books are also public domain books. Anyone may print them & publish them if they want. I would like that, and that they are shared.

Lucifer Jeremy White

It's all a show

Life in the world is no more than unorganized acting. We are always acting, always on stage, or so we think.

People will try to find the best part they can.

It is a fearsome thought though when you stop to think that others have a different existence altogether. They have their own life, own spirit, own soul. So what is (this person) or (that person) doing right now that has anything at all to do with you, really?

We are all acting. A star in the sea of stars.

So don't let it be a burden. Stop a moment and just love yourself for who you are. Others really do care about you as much that they make their best self just for you.
